"Red is my favourite accent colour for the kitchen. It reminds me of all things delicious, like fresh raspberries, cherry pie and heirloom tomatoes."

DESIGN CRED: Portland, Ore., home renovated by Jessica Helgerson Interior Design.

WHY I LOVE IT: Red Tolix-style stools add oomph to a classic white scheme.

BONUS POINTS: Marble and walnut surfaces, an artisanal encaustic concrete tile floor and handmade ceramic wall tiles play off large industrial windows and a restaurant-style faucet.

THE KITCHEN YOU LIKE
The kitchen repinned the most from House & Home's Pinterest page merges modern and traditional elements for a cool vintage look. pinterest.com/houseandhome

DESIGN CRED: Kitchen by Toronto designer Stacy Beggs, with cabinets and counters by Ikea.

WHY YOU SAY YOU LOVE IT: An accent wall of hand-painted tiles evokes a Euro-farmhouse feel.

BONUS POINTS: The combination of warm butcherblock and cool marble counters, long brass pulls (for polish) and hits of teal blue.
